This week our "Very Special Person" is Mrs. Leona Moore Wambles Wise, who is well known in Elba because of her skill as a talented sea-40 years of sewing behind her. Aside from being well-known, she is also well thought of and respected as witness these comments from some of her friends and nurses aides at the Nursing Home. Mrs. Jese Donaldson, an aide, said, 'She is a very sweet person and very alert. She's a real smart person---has lots of energy." Another aide, Mrs. Lillian Turner said, "She's a nice person. She's very cooperative. She works with others fine. She's a very sweet person." And, Mrs. Cecil Crook had this to say about Mrs. Wise, "She's just as weet as she can be. I just

PREP ROUNDUP

Andalusia quarterback, Lynn Shreve, broke loose for an 86-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to lead Andy to a 7 come-from-behind win over Geneva. The Bulldogs are 9-0, while the Panthers finished 8-2. The Bulldogs next game is tomorrow night against Eufaula for the Region 2 Title. Eufaula tuned up for their game with Andy by blitzing Blakely, Ga., 22-9. The Tiger's Ronald Hines returned a kick 82 yards, and raced 67 yards from scrimmage to account for two touchdowns. Brantley and Zion Chapel also tuned up for their meeting tommorrow night, by easily routing their opponents. The Bulldogs breezed past lowly Ft. Deposit, 34-0, while the Rebels bombed a good Highland Home squad, 40-6. New Brockton ended their inaugural season 2-6, dropping their finale to Louisville, 21-6. The Enterprise Wildcats ran their record to 8-1 with a 25-9 homecoming win over Selma. The win sets up tomorrow night's Enterprise-Dothan game as the Region 3 championship Ashford claimed a spot in the playoffs by dumping Abbe ville, 16-6. The Yellow Jackets' win, couped with Slocombs 17-14 loss to Rehobeth, gave Ashford the berth. Over 42,000 fans poured into Legion Field Friday night to watch Banks drop Woodlawn 18-7. The reason I feel this is a good point is because I am convinced that few people, no matter what their job or profession, could function under the pressures put on a high school football coach.

Even though Coach Bryant's comments were centered mainly around college coaches, I feel the statement holds especially true for our coaches here in Elba. Before the 1974-75 football season began, Elba had "3" legitimate all-conference, and possibly all-state candidates They were Bill Mickle, Richard Brunson, and Mickey Mar-

Bill dropped out of school due to personal reasons, while Richard broke his ankle, and Mickey separated his shoulder. Add to this, the injury of junior-linebacker Danny Haley, who was named "player-of-the-week" by the Montgomery Advertiser one week, and who the following week was hobbling on crutches, the victim of a severe knee-injury. When you ask why Elba's record isn't up-to-par, how about considering the above mentioned facts.

Well, that is what high school coaches must do. Bryant added: "People ought to stop and think and give a man a "chance," and not embarrass his family by constant

Still Just A Game

Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama made an excellent point a few days ago when he came to the defense of a num-ber of football coaches who are under fire from the fans. He stated: "I don't think people would do it if they stopped to think about what kind of job they're doing themselves

ler. None of these boys have played since mid-season.

Stop and think, how would you like to depend on how well "ll" teenage boys play football, for a means of supporting your family? You wouldn't, right?

I fully agree. At the same time, I'm beginning to worry. The 37th renewal of Mont-Maybe football fans are making too much out of the game when they resort to vicious criticism of the coaches. After all, football is still just a game, a pastime, a sport. I would like to see Elba win the state title every year, but even Coach Bryant suffered through hard-times before he became a
